Program Summary

East St. Louis Local School District 189 AmeriCorps members will provide academic support and mentoring while in-school, out-of-school, and during the summer to youth in 5th-12th grades within the East St. Louis Schools District 189. At the end of the project period, the AmeriCorps members will have implemented a comprehensive in- and out-of-school pathways program that will have established a pathway for students to build work-based learning opportunities through increased employer partnerships, as well as expanded access to youth employment opportunities and youth volunteer civic engagement. This program will focus on the CNCS focus areas of Education and Economic Opportunity.
